FOR STARTING SECONDARY SCHOOL

We have selected some books from the school library that cover topics of transition, friendship groups, adjusting to change and dealing with big emotions associated with settling into a new school.

EVERYTHING ALL AT ONCE

An achingly beautiful collection of poems about one week in a secondary school where everything happens all at once. There are poems about hoping to make it to the end of the week, facing it, fitting in, finding friends and falling out, to loving lessons, losing it, worrying and wearing it well.

NO WORRIES

Starting secondary school is a bit like going on a safari – it's a great adventure but sometimes, before you go, you can get a touch of the 'what ifs'. You may be feeling anxious or stressed about leaving primary school. No Worries is full of information about going up from primary to secondary school and covers all of the big worries and anxieties.

FEARLESS

You can be Fearless with help from this interactive and informative book for tweens & teens. Fearless helps you find the confidence to be your true self. With vibrant colour illustrations throughout, Fearless shows that by breaking free from labels and stereotypes, together we can build a generation who are healthy, happy and can truly realise their full potential.

BEING MISS NOBODY

Rosalind hates her new secondary school. She's the weird girl who doesn't talk. The Mute-ant. And it's easy to pick on someone who can't fight back. So Rosalind starts a blog – Miss Nobody; a place to speak up, a place where she has a voice. But there's a problem... Is Miss Nobody becoming a bully herself?

ELLA ON THE OUTSIDE

Ella is facing some big changes. She's just had to start at a new school, she's moved away from her best friend Grace, her eczema is acting up, and on top of all that, she has a huge secret to keep about her family. So when Lydia, the most popular girl in school, wants to start hanging out, things must be on the up..

AWKWARD

This book tells the story of Penelope "Peppi" Torres, a new student at Berrybrook Middle School, whose first encounter with a boy from the science club leads to much awkwardness between them, and their sparring clubs.

OCTOBER, OCTOBER

An emotive read, October, October is all about dealing with change. October grew up in the woods with her dad. She loved her life and being wild. But after an accident, she moves to the city and must start school. This is a story of feeling like an outsider, not fitting in, and struggling with challenges that life throws at us

CAN YOU SEE ME?

A powerful and highly relatable story about fitting in and being yourself. Tally's diary entries give an authentic insight into one girl's perspective of being autistic, and smashing a host of common assumptions and stereotypes about autism as we see Tally's potent sense of humour and her deep empathy. Most powerful of all is Tally's ultimate realisation that autism is not something that needs to be hidden.
