

Plymouth High Sixth Form Student Charter 2023 – 2025

If you are to successfully make this difficult step from year 11 to year 12, you have to make effective use of your time in school from day 1. We have the same aim which is facilitating you onto your dream post-18 career path. Everything we do and have put in place is to best ensure that this happens.

CLAW securing your future

Culture of independent study and guided specialist support

Learning and thinking about how I learn and revise best

Attendance being central to my success

Why am I here and what is important for me and my next steps

As a student I will:

- Attend full-time unless permitted after the year 12 mocks to have home study sessions
- Use my independent learning time effectively, including the assigned subject specific independent study sessions
- Seek help when required and meet set deadlines
- Make sure my school work takes priority over my part-time job
- Attend one-to-one tutorials as directed by my tutor
- Treat students and the PHSG community as a whole with respect including looking after our Sixth Form study centre

Plymouth High Sixth Form Student Charter 2023 – 2025

You will also be expected to adhere to these non-negotiable rules and expectations:

- As a full-time student, you will be expected to be in school from 8.40am to 3.30pm and to attend registration along with punctual full attendance to your lessons.
- Successful graduation from your mocks in year 12 will allow the opportunity for home study periods
- Use the signing in/out system as outlined in the sixth form student handbook
- Adhere to the sixth form dress code whilst always wearing your Sixth Form ID lanyard
- Make effective use of all communication methods including checking and replying to your emails on a daily basis

You may be asked to leave the Sixth Form if the above conditions are not met and that your progression on to A2 for each subject will be dependent on achieving a D grade or better in the end of year mocks
