Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope this finds you well.

Ofsted report coming out soon

You will remember that Ofsted inspected Plymouth High in April. The final report will be available next week and will be posted on our website. I will write to you before half term with a link to the report so that it is easy to locate.

Trust Arts week

Students are starting to think about our Trust wide arts week. There will be activities each day during the week beginning 24th June and there are competitions for students to enter. In my weekly message to students this week, I have provided full details about how to enter the Arts week competitions. We hope to have lots of entries with a view to being placed in the Trust wide finals. Thank you in advance for any support you provide your child in showcasing their talent.

Arts Hero

Do you know an Arts Hero? Would you like to nominate one? Please see the attached information about how to nominate your Arts Hero. Use the link here to nominate your Arts hero. If your hero goes through to the final, they will be invited for the awards ceremony in Exeter.

Uniform and phones

Well done to the majority of our students in years 7 to 11 for wearing their uniform smartly. Students should remember that the blazer is compulsory and must be worn at the start and end of the day and when arriving at and leaving lessons. Students have been great at remembering that phones must be switched off and in their bag when in school (sixth form students are permitted to use their phones in the sixth form study centre only). Students are welcome to store their phones with reception if they wish and they can ask their tutor for more information.

Trust staff training

I thought I would remind parents about the calendared Trust wide staff training on Tuesday 25th June in the afternoon. School will finish for students at 1.15pm on 25th June, unless they are attending a scheduled examination. We will not be able to arrange for bus and train times to be changed. If you would like your child to be supervised in school until 3.30pm on 25th June, please contact their Head of Year.

Best wishes,

Simon Underdown.
Headteacher.
