

Plymouth High School for Girls

'For Life, Not School, We Learn'

Student Code of Conduct

By choosing PHSG you accept our policies and procedures and we are grateful to you for your determination to do the right thing.

It is expected that, as a student of PHSG, you will always show respect, both in and out of school, by having:

Respect for yourself:

- Take responsibility for your actions both in school and out of school, be kind to yourself and others
- Always look smart by wearing your school uniform correctly and be ready to learn
- Follow school rules at all times both on and off the school site

Respect for others:

- Always behave with courtesy and consideration, walk on the left when moving around the school and hold doors open for people coming through after you
- Respect school and other people's property
- Always arrive promptly to lessons
- Ensure that you have all the necessary books and equipment for lessons
- Respect for all members of the wider community when out of school

Respect for the environment:

- Keep the school clean and tidy
- Only eat in the designated places e.g. Refectory or outside

Respect for Learning:

- Ensure all classwork and home learning is completed to the best of your ability and on time. (#100100)
- Ensure your behaviour contributes positively to your lessons

Students have a right to:

- Study in a safe environment
- Be spoken to calmly and with respect
- Be listened to
- Receive no less than good teaching every lesson
- Have their educational needs planned for
